HATTA WATCHTOWER

Dating back to 1880 the Hatta 360 Observatory was built as a military tower in the village to fend of any attackers from neighboring emirates and countries.

Today the structure sits proudly at a peak point of Hatta offering visitors unspoilt views of its natural beauty. A must visit for anyone coming to Hatta.

Experience the life of bees, how they work and enjoy a workshop on the wonder of honey.

With over 25 years of experience, modern collection beekeeping equipment, state-of-the-art technology & using the best bee breeds in the world, Hatta Honey ranks as the biggest Honey producers in the region.

HATTA SIGN

Situated atop the Hajar Mountains, this 19.28-metre-high structure is a striking symbol of Hatta’s identity and its status as one of the UAE’s most scenic regions. The Hatta Sign also holds the Guinness World Record for “The Tallest Landmark Sign”. Don't miss an opportunity to experience picturesque views of a quaint town alongside this remarkable sign. To reach the landmark, begin your hike from Hatta Wadi Hub and follow the mountain trail for approximately seven kilometres.

SWAN LAKE

A large bathing pool for the local birds of Hatta, offering them a place to swim and feed while visitors relax and watch.

Situated close to the Heritage village with a picturesque view of the mountains behind. A great place for families and picnics.

HATTA KAYAK

Kayaking on the lake formed by the Hatta Dam is easily accessible from the Sedr Trailers Resort.

Enjoy being on the water with Kayaking packages available to book from reception.

Other water activities are also available to enjoy such as pedalos and water bikes.

HATTA HERITAGE VILLAGE

Hatta Heritage Village is one of the most popular and unique landmarks near Dubai, especially for the Arab culture and see some of the last remaining symbols of its erstwhile splendour. This mountain village, presumed to be over 3000 years old, has been preserved and restored to its original glory to give tourists a glimpse of how the Emiratis lived centuries ago.

Backdropped by the majestic Hajar Mountain range, date trees, and vast expanses of barren land, visiting this place is like stepping back in time.
